

JACQUELINE M. PARKER

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Jacqueline Parker is a seasoned banker, who brings over 40 years of field experience to the table.

Born and raised in Nevada, with virtually all of her professional experience in the Neon Capital of the World – Las Vegas, Jacqueline has an exceptional understanding of the state's banking and private financing services industry. She leverages this genuine, deep-rooted knowledge of the industry's culture and practices to deliver exceptional results for her employers and their bottom lines.

What stands Jacqueline out as a professional is the combination of her experience. On the one hand, she is a proven leader in financial compliance and operations, highly capable of leading cross-functional teams and delivering tough sales targets. On the other hand, she boasts years of experience as a highly successful business relationships manager, which requires a vastly different set of interpersonal skills.

With these proven qualities, Jacqueline has seen a rewarding career. She started out as a Compliance Officer in a Las Vegas bank in 1994 and moved up to the position of an Executive VP in the bank's private banking division within 15 years.

Jacqueline has always cherished working with clients and their investment portfolios among all the worthwhile pursuits she has held in her career. She holds her Certified Wealth Strategist qualifications dearer than most of her other achievements and titles. She immensely enjoys advising people and organizations on making prudent financial decisions, helping them expand their investment portfolios with diversification and other rewarding strategies.

As a highly driven professional, Jacqueline seeks efficient solutions that enable her to move forward towards her goals faster without compromising on the quality of her results. She is known among her peers as a professional who brings in results, and does so using the best way possible.

Jacqueline is a modern, ambitious professional who believes in the power of smart work and diligence. She is a committed banker, financial advisor, and wealth manager with a remarkable track record of success and an endless collection of interesting stories to tell.

Apart from work, Jacqueline enjoys spending time riding horses, barrel racing, and team sorting. She volunteers for Second Chance Animal Rescue, helping rescue dogs from kill pens across the country. She also loves working in her 3-acre farm and taking care of the animals. She lives in Las Vegas with her husband, James. Her tribe includes a son, a daughter, two stepsons, and ten grandchildren.
